

KITCHEN STORIES' ALBUM

COOKERY CLASSES:

(Open) OB196 (a) and OB 196 (b) (Young Adult) YC 131 (a) and YC 131 (b) and (Junior) 9-13 yrs JC 31 (a) and JC 31 (b)

Documenting and passing on traditional family recipes and special memories of times around the kitchen table.

How often do we say, Mum/Dad/Grandma/Pop used to make the most delicious this or that and I wonder how they made them or what happened to that special recipe?

What about special family times around the meal table when hilarious things would regularly happen e.g. stories, jokes, favourite radio programs on at the same time, a family member's odd behaviour or even when parents rule was always strictly enforced!!!

Don't let those wonderful memories and details be lost forever. Instead, record them for yourself, other family members and perhaps later for the album to be passed onto their loved ones.

Enclose details of such recipes, new and old, even if handwritten and containing butter stains, adding to their character. Importantly, recipes will NOT be tested as judging will be based on the album's presentation only.

Why not include photos, names and other items that might help tell the stories and add to the album's content and presentation. Importantly, where appropriate explain whom/what you are referring to, so anyone else reading your album in the future can easily put details into context.

Exhibit Criteria, Entry Details and Further Information

Two Options available in all the above Cookery classes

Class (a): Develop an album of no more than 20 pages (page size optional), using more professional materials such as those provided through companies like Vista Print, Photobox or similar (see their websites for examples).

Class (b): Develop an album of no more than 20 pages (page size optional) using either hand written and/or typed content and even using hints obtained through the website.

1st prize and ribbon will be awarded in Classes (a) and (b). 2nd & 3rd ribbons will also be awarded in each of above age groups.

Please see pages 30/31 of the Port Elliot Show Book for all entry details and entry form, which will also be available on the show's website www.portelliotsow.com.au mid-August. A copy of the Show Book will be inserted in The Times on the 15th August, 2019 and will also available throughout the Fleurieu Peninsula

IMPORTANT: ENTRIES CLOSE LAST MAIL FRIDAY 27th SEPTEMBER, 2019

Remember it's not all about winning but more importantly about recording such details before they are lost forever! Your album will be stored in an enclosed cabinet and protected as far as is possible.

Should anyone not have internet access or have any questions, telephone Patsy Greer VP (1) and Cookery Convener on 8552 5890 and a copy of the entry form will be posted to you in this situation only. If necessary, please leave contact details and your call will be returned.

The sky is the limit and a great opportunity to use your own creativity.

Exhibits need to be delivered to the O'Brien Pavilion at Port Elliot Showgrounds (Cameron Street off Tottenham Court Road) between 8.30 a.m. and 11.30 a.m. Friday 11th October and to be collected between 4.00-5.00 p.m. Sunday 13th October.
